

Mesmerizing past memories of Islamic Era Public School (IEP) Krangsoo

Author: Tawseef Ahmad Hajam

co-author: Arif Gulzar Hajam

Institution: Indra Gandhi Open National University (IGNOU)

O lord my eyes start weeping

when we were innocent

These were the days of IEP School (8th class), these were the days of IEP School

O lord my eyes start weeping

When we were afraid of teachers tasks

These were the days of IEP School (8th class), these were the days of IEP School

O lord my eyes start weeping

When we were moving hand in hand together

These were the days of IEP School (8th class), these were the days of IEP School

O lord my eyes start weeping

When we were playing hide & seek as of school fee

These were the days of IEP School (8th class), these were the days of IEP School

O lord my eyes start weeping

When our pockets were empty but still jubilant

These were the days of IEP School (8th class), these were the days of IEP School

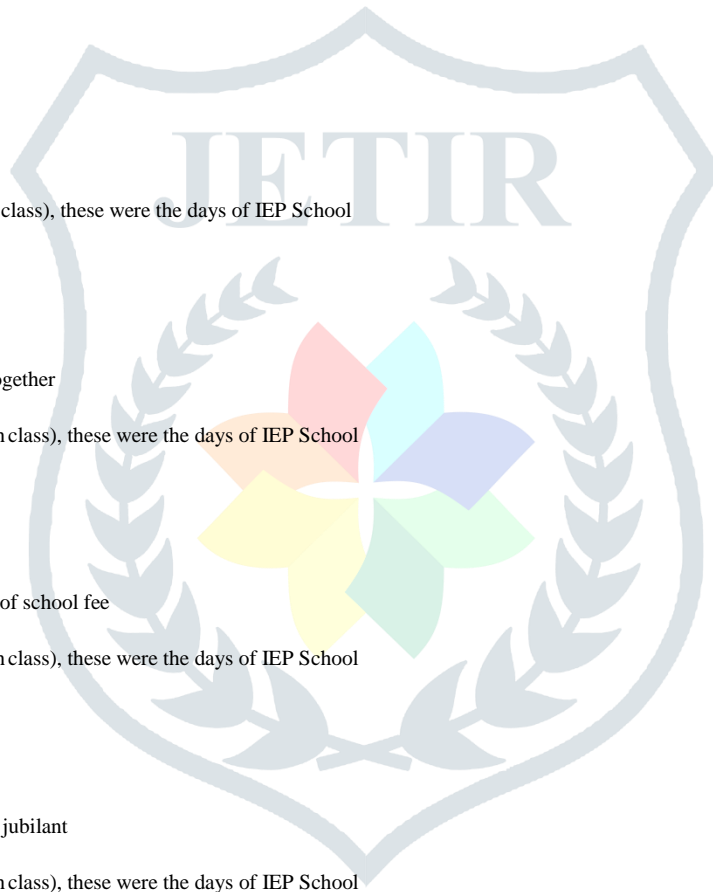

O lord my eyes start weeping

When our pockets, filled with sugar and Sotho (Kashmiri word)

These were the days of IEP School (8th class), these were the days of IEP School

O lord my eyes start weeping

When we were helping to build our school

These were the days of IEP School (8th class), these were the days of IEP School

O lord my eyes start weeping

When we were collecting Rupees to decorate our class room

These were the days of IEP School (8th class), these were the days of IEP School

O lord my eyes start weeping

When we were fighting for dictionary prize

These were the days of IEP School (8th class), these were the days of IEP School

O lord my eyes start weeping

When we were roaming as free birds

These were the days of IEP School (8th class), these were the days of IEP School

O lord my eyes start weeping

When we were playing prank each other

These were the days of IEP School (8th class), these were the days of IEP School

O lord my eyes start weeping

when we were burning bright

These were the days of IEP School (8th class), these were the days of IEP School

O lord my eyes start weeping

When we were in idealistic perception of love

These were the days of IEP School (8th class), these were the days of IEP School

