Once we go back, into the history of India, from Ancient, Medieval and Modern, and present, we can say that there are so many rulers, ruled this country. Just like Dravidian race, Aryans, Mughal races and, advent of Europeans, like Dutch, Portuguese, French and British. They come to India for trade purpose and the British captured the power and ruled the country for 200 years when they are ruling they did so many social reforms to protect the women rights and provide women education, and women employment, and some social changes and rectified, Human atrocities or all social evils.

At the time of the second world war our Nation people integrated, for the protest of Independence (or) freedom and took promise from British and participated in second world war, on behalf of British and we got Independence on 15th August 1947 Free India and we had fullfledged constitution framed and formed on 26th January 1950 Indian Republic .

From 1950 onwards, to present position there had been women protecting laws or Acts came into existence, one of them is “Nirbhaya” Act latest, even though, the women is not overcome atrocities of social events like rape, murders’, teasing, thefting, the gold ornaments in their house when women is living alone, and snatching the chains from necks, when walking on roads. The present social media crying and protesting with women organization like (IDWA) to eradicate social evil on women.

The recent beauty contest conducted in Vizag. And the film made by Ram gopal Varma namely (G.S.T) focuses, us women is a beauty doll and commercial commodity and domestic rabbit, villain role in T.V serials.

The question is-when does the women free from these types of problems, and what we have to do, for these troubles to be avoided.

No-Doubt, we have strong Acts constitution for women but we are unable to receive them, reason for that is –lack of implementation of existing Act, by running Government.

We can see the real facts in the following cases.

- (A) Dowry harassment [3,4] IPC (Act)

- (C) Rape case [323] IPC (Act)

What ever the consequences come across in our practical life we have to face them with bold mind. Because life is not a bed of Roses but blend with thorns also.
