Abstract: In the present scenario traveling is very common hobby and this hobby is no more so expensive if a traveller is planning properly. Backpackers in not new thing in travelling world. But its emerging trend in India. Not only forgien tourists like to stay in hostels or with home stay now. Backpacker style not only making travelling economic but also give us a different viewpoint to traveler to look at a place, to enjoy ,knowledge, information. Young generation of India has started this new way of travelling in India.

Introduction: Backpacking style came into existence around 1970 at that time it was generally considered as an option for the people who were not having good financial background. Still if talk about the forgien tourists who come to India to travel as a backpacker they are from they same segment.

But in the context of Indian tourist its not only about the economic way of travelling, they get new friends, especially foreigners, better way of enjoyment.

Holidaying is no longer just for the rich. An increasing number of Indians are now taking time out from their busy life to travel with their family and friends to bond, celebrate, explore, and experience varied lifestyle, culture, and food.

here has been a blast in the movement market, and travel has turned into a way of life explanation of 2016. The coming year will just observe it develop and develop further. Indians are getting to be advanced explorers. They are never again just vacationers. From exploring to extravagance travel, the necessities are differed and fascinating. A few people travel for sustenance, while others travel for shopping. Some are solo voyagers, while some incline toward going with family. As indicated by TripAdvisor' consider, upwards of 44 percent of voyagers from India expanded their movement spends in 2016. Being high on the worldwide rundown of explorers, who need to take a stab at something new, India is eighteenth in the worldwide travel spending rankings, with an expected normal spending plan of $3,107, contrasted and the worldwide normal travel spend of $5,100.

The coming year will see an ascent in experiential and goal occasions in India. As per Booking.com, around 58 percent of voyagers intend to allot their movement spending plan to encounters. Individuals in India currently favor great inns, eateries, exercises like scuba jumping, skydiving, sight-seeing balloon ride, meals, parties at top of the line bars.

Indians are searching for finding special spot as well as mean to make extraordinary recollections. Regardless of whether it is going inside India or outside India with more distant family or praising an achievement with a sustenance and best of extravagance or relaxation experience, voyagers will come back with recollections that outlast the genuine encounter.

We will likewise observe odd goals which will be investigated by individuals. As per AARP study, all inclusive 99 percent will take somewhere around one recreation trip in 2017, with a normal of at least five treks expected consistently. Most (51 percent) hope to just travel locally, yet a critical part is wanting to travel both locally and universally (43 percent). A similar pattern will be found in India also.

A portion of the top goals of 2017 are probably going to be Sri Lanka, Philippines, Croatia, South of Italy, Tasmania, and Madagascar. These goals are as yet unfamiliar and most Indians are presently searching for new places instead of frequenting similar goals. Experiential will increment since individuals are searching for in excess of a vacation. They are searching for making their vacation into picking up, something more profound for them to retain out of the occasion - a reclaim.

Today, Indian voyagers are investigating imaginative soul satisfying occasions like an ace class with a culinary expert, spa occasions for those needing revival, ski exercises or skydiving for those seeing experience, trekking and climbing for the nature sweethearts, and the workmanship darlings have biennales and craftsmanship celebrations.

Indians will be seen making a trip to far away terrains like Japan to observe the cherry blooms, encountering Northern lights, venturing out to Tuscany for a cooking knowledge with an ace culinary expert, figuring out how to ski on a ski occasion in the French Alps, and commending achievement events with a private occasion with family and companions in a portion of the famous goals.

Hostels never again mean meagerly outfitted quarters where desperate youthful hikers lay their heads and line to utilize collective washrooms. New types of extravagance lodgings have seen a hole in the jam-packed inn commercial center to offer chic convenience at deal costs, drawing in adroit holidaymakers all things considered.

A neoteric origination, U HOSTELS offer a rich convenience amped by tastefully planned urban structures, a youthful and vivacious atmosphere or more all, most extreme cleanliness models to guarantee an agreeable and charming remain for each explorer.

Inventive Concept

Inns are being touted as the favored settlement decision among the Millennials. An exciting mix of sweeping administrations, extravagance and moderateness get them an edge over other urban settlement alternatives.

"It's absolutely another idea. In the event that you take a gander at the lodging convenience in the nation, it is exceedingly divided and there is no brand which offers quality and consistency with premium administrations to clients. Premium inn section is a totally missing fragment in India, we are taking a gander at filling that vacuum," stated, Sudhir Sinha, Managing Director, U Hostels Hospitality LLP. As a superior item, U Hostels will have "conveniences of a lodging and solace of an administration loft." "Our Hostels will have cafeteria, eatery, rec center, space for social occasions, laundromats, and so forth.," Sinha said.

Extravagance Living

Millennial voyagers need to have their pick of chic, cool inns complete with honor winning bars, luxury shower items, and even close to home perusing lights. The sharing idea/co-living society has been obtained from lodgings, while conveniences will be proportional to a four-star inn. This idea is pervasive in Europe in a major manner.

"We will offer global standard long visit and shared housing in prime business locale crosswise over India to the working administrators and recognizing voyagers," Sinha said.

Administration contributions at U Hostels are customized and most appropriate for long stay needs, a pre-essential for the cost-cognizant yet mindful worldwide visitors who travel every now and again for both business and relaxation.

Rising Demands

Absence of casual and urbane settlement alternatives are taking into account the sensibilities of single guys and youthful voyagers between the age gathering of 25-40 years. As indicated by a study, there is a relentless ascent in the interest for extravagance inns attributable to their ease, key areas and broadened offices alongside a light vibe, helpful for voyagers of all age gatherings. Esteemed at a rough $5.2 billion in bed income, the development projections for the lodging business are as high as 7-8 percent every year. Developing markets like Asia, The Middle East, and Eastern Europe are being touted as potential favored areas with expected income development from the lodging business in twofold digits.

Exploring India... It's a hellfire of an encounter. I have visited India multiple times currently, going through about two years exploring over this insane sub-landmass.

The great thing about exploring India is that basically anyone can manage the cost of it, particularly if its all the same to you being somewhat awkward. I bounced insane and bummed a ride, couchsurfed and rested harsh a great deal to make my movement dreams a reality be that as it may, to be completely forthright, exploring in India is cheap to the point that you don't generally need to do this... A financial plan of just $500 a month will go far when hiking India and it's conceivable to do it for far less.

A ton of explorers visiting India end up investing practically the majority of their energy in the voyager centers of Goa, Hampi, Manali and Rishikesh at the same time, to be completely forthright, this isn't the genuine India.

The genuine India can be a test at the same time, for audacious hikers, India offers probably the most amazing investigating in all of Asia.

Study Background: This study is totally based on secondary data. All this information is gathered with the help of internet , different websites and articles.

Summary: Backpacker is not a new style in the travel industry but in India it is an emerging trend and becoming. For foreigner tourist it always an economic way of travelling .
