(A) Uneven Growth:

Trade union exercises are gathered in enormous scope ventures and that too in respect of physical work just and chiefly in greater mechanical focus, there is not really any trade union exercises in little scope undertakings, homegrown and horticultural work. The level of unionism differs a ton from industry to industry, along these lines contacting just a part of the common laborers in India.

(B) Low Membership:

Even however, the quantity of trade unions has expanded extensively in India yet this has been trailed by the declining participation per union. The normal number of individuals per union was around 3,500 out of 1927-28. It decreased to around 1,400 of every 1946-47 and again to as low as a figure of 675 out of 1985-86 and 659 out of 2000-01. This shows the rise of little scope trade unions.

(C) Multiplicity of Unions:

Another issue looked at by the development of trade unions is that of an assortment of unions. There may exist many trade unions in a similar foundation. The presence of a huge number of trade unions can be ascribed to the way that The Trade Unions Act, 1926 allows any relationship of seven laborers to be enrolled as a union, and presents upon it certain rights. Numerous a period, it is fought that variety of unions is a direct result of outside pioneers, yet more appropriate point is that they can work since the law allows and offers sacredness to the little unions.

(D) Inter-Union Rivalry:

Unions attempt to make light of one another in an offer to increase more noteworthy impact among laborers. In the process, they accomplish more damage than anything else to the reason for unionism all in all. Businesses are allowed a chance to play unions against one another. They can decline to deal with the conflict that there isn't a correct delegate union. Other than this, the laborer's own solidarity is lost. Businesses can exploit in battling between laborers groups.

(E) Weak Financial Position:

The money related position is low as their normal yearly pay is exceptionally low and lacking. The membership rates are low because of a variety of unions, unions keen on expanding their participation keep the membership rates extremely low coming about deficiency of assets with the unions. Another significant explanation behind the powerless monetary situation of unions is that a lot of membership contributions stay unpaid by the laborers. The name of consistent defaulters ceaselessly shows up on the registers on the vast majority of the unions. They are neither removed nor stop to be individuals ipso facto as indicated by the union rules.

(F) Lack of Public Support:

The trade unions every now and again resort to strike and dissent to set their expectations meet. Subsequently, bother is caused to the public. This is the public help or compassion is nearly negligible.

CONCLUSION

Unreasonable work practice a lot of not including representatives in any sort of dynamic brought about the arrangement of trade union in India and its acknowledgment by official courtroom, The idea of social equity and mechanical harmony must be accomplished by the shared participation of managers and work and that is the reason trade unions assume their significant functions in accomplishing the modern harmony and serving generally equity to the worker. There are different settings in which worker ought to be excluded from the self-assertive choices of bosses like wages, reward, working hour, occasions, this exception must be accomplished by ideals of arrangement named as aggregate haggling where interest of the two players are given needs in any sort of question, root of trade union explains the battle behind the development of trade unions in India, further the nonstop division in the trade union at public level prompted the less usage of target they outline before arrangement, one of the reason can likewise be followed as enactment in such manner, presently a days there are just two fundamentals which have be fulfilled to build up a trade union that is considerable number of laborers and matter of debate have generous nexus with laborers yet the portrayal isn't the main errand which is to be done, with the end goal of exchange and complete administration the expertise of dealing is required which ordinarily needs the normal specialists of the business as they needs training and mindfulness. There are different sufferings which win with the working of trade union like the absence of budgetary assets and initiative which precludes the best possible distribution of assets and contribution in strategy making notwithstanding of such constraints the need of more proficient worker's guild is required in order to ensure the premium of sweat works, in the event of any self-assertive activity from the businesses which employs them.
