Pendrani Mahavidyalaya Umerkote, Nabarangpur

My lord has bestowed joy and peace

which I was unable to find.

I was lost in my miseries;

Lost and distracted in the wilderness.

Hopeless I was in the absence of polestar.

Affected I was by everything and everywhere.

Subsequent efforts were put to change

People around me but all in vain.

With each failed attempt

The hope was dying in pain.

Seven years passed by

I saw then a miracle;

As a phoenix hope rose from its ashes.
